

Parental Consent to Leave Camp

The Montana East-West Shrine Game will provide every opportunity for a player to participate in any family, academic, athletic, or other obligations that may coincide with the Training Camp. However, as part of this opportunity, we require that parents/players requesting to leave camp for any reason complete the below form. This consent must be completed and returned to the Team Coordinator before camp begins. Only the Team Coordinator can grant permission to leave the camp.

I understand that the Montana East-West Shrine Game encourages players to experience the week of training camp with other players for the entirety of the camp. However, circumstances in our family necessitate my son to travel from the camp location in the below manner on the following dates:

Player Name: _____

Travel Purpose: _____

Approximate travel (date and time): _____

My son will be using a personal vehicle insured by me. I understand that the Montana Shrine Game will not be providing insurance coverage for this vehicle, and I release the Montana Shrine Game from any liability related to this travel. Other Montana Shrine Game participants riding with my son shall also complete a consent form which will be submitted to the Montana Shrine Game and kept on file at the camp.
